WINTER EDITION

The Elizabeth Peratrovich Project

Since 2007, the League of Women Voters of Alaska has had a dream of bringing the story of Elizabeth Peratrovich to all school children in the state. Long-time Juneau member, Carolyn Brown is helping to see this project to fruition.

A number of things all came together this past year. Annie Boochever, who grew up in Juneau, worked with Roy Peratrovich, Jr to write the story, "Fighter in Velvet Gloves." This book documents an important part of Alaska and the United States history with the involvement of Elizabeth and Roy Peratrovich in the 1940's civil rights movement for anti-discrimination in Alaska.

Getting grants from the Alaska State Libraries, Archives & Museums (the "SLAM"), the Institute of Museum and Library Services, and the League of Women Voters of Alaska, the Juneau League bought the books, developed the bookplates, and sent letters to the superintendents of all districts to let them know the book is coming. Over four hundred and fifty (450) books will be sent across schools and libraries in Alaska.

A "packing party" will be held on December 2nd, 11 am to 4 pm at the State Library to place the bookplates in the books, put them in the mailing envelopes and stick on the mailing labels and stamps. Please join us! With so many books, we need a lot of hands.

Special thanks to
Patience Frederiksen, State Librarian, for all her help.

“People Powered Fair Maps” - LWVUS

Our LWV Alaska board has opted into the LWVUS People-Powered Fair Maps Campaign, an effort to focus on the Census count, (on which later redistricting rests), a fair and transparent redistricting process, and a celebration of the 19th Amendment 100th Anniversary by in part advocating the restoration of the Voting Rights Acts (H 8) at the federal level.

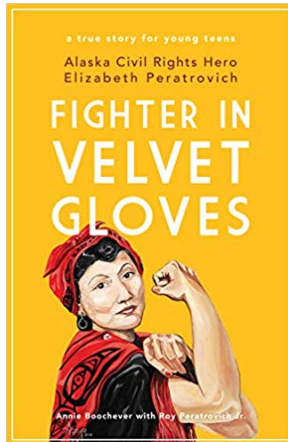

This is a nationwide project and LWVAK has been awarded a $1000 grant to implement education and advocacy on the issues mentioned above.

THE GOAL:

1. Increase the public awareness of the importance of the Census Count as it relates to redistricting and federal funding.
2. Increase the public awareness of the process of redistricting, where that process can go wrong, the value of fair and transparent redistricting, and how the public can become involved to insure transparency and fairness.
3. The history of the women's suffrage movement and the history of the fight for the voting rights of all going forward, with special emphasis on the restoration of the Voting Rights Act and recent activities pointing to the need for that emphasis.

Watch your email for more information about this important effort.

If you are interested in being part of a committee to help with this, please send an email with your interest to lwvjuneau@gmail.com.

“No Natives or Dogs Allowed,” blared the storefront sign at Elizabeth Peratrovich, then a young Alaska Native Tlingit. The sting of those words would stay with her all her life. Years later, after becoming a seasoned fighter for equality, she would deliver her own powerful message: one that helped change Alaska and the nation forever.

In 1945, Peratrovich stood before the Alaska Territorial Legislative Session and gave a powerful speech about her childhood and her experiences being treated as a second-class citizen. Her heartfelt testimony led to the passing of the landmark Alaska Anti-Discrimination Act, America's first civil rights legislation. Today, Alaska celebrates Elizabeth Peratrovich Day every February 16, and she will be honored on the gold one-dollar coin in 2020.

Annie Boochever worked with Elizabeth's eldest son, Roy Peratrovich Jr., to bring Elizabeth's story to life in the first book written for young teens on this remarkable Alaska Native woman.

What else have we been doing (summer/fall)?

Your League members have been busy! We held another successful “How to Run for (local) Office” workshop, organized the Municipal Candidates forum along with the Juneau Empire and KTOO, marched in the parade on July 4th, many of us volunteered to work the elections, Karen presented the LWV to the Rotary, and we co-sponsored an event with the Healthy Alaskans Coalition.

Volunteer!
